

SPECIAL CABLES.

FROM THE "HERALD'S" LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

THE KING OF ITALY IN FRANCE.

GLORIOUS RECOLLECTIONS RECALLED.

LONDON, Oct. 19. On Saturday King Victor Emmanuel III. of Italy and Queen Elena witnessed a review of French troops at Vincennes. The King returned to Paris and lunched with President Loubet at the Elysée.

King Victor Emmanuel, in proposing the health of President Loubet and Madame Loubet, referred to the number of times French soldiers had fought side by side. President Loubet, in responding, said he was grateful that glorious recollections had been recalled by his Majesty.

During the afternoon their Majesties started towards President Loubet, in taking farewell of his guests, promised to visit Rome.

ENTHUSIASTIC ITALIANS.

LONDON, Oct. 19. On Saturday enthusiastic demonstrations in favour of France took place in most Italian cities.

At Rome 50,000 citizens surrounded the French Embassy, Palazzo Farnese, and loudly cheered the French nation.

A SHOOTING EXCURSION.

LONDON, Oct. 18. On Friday King Victor Emmanuel III. of Italy, with his Queen, was on a visit to Paris, took part in a shooting excursion at Rambouillet.

In the evening there was a grand military tattoo on the walls and in the streets of Paris.

THE BRITISH MINISTRY.

RECONSTRUCTION COMPLETE.

SCOTTISH LAW OFFICERS.

LONDON, Oct. 19. Mr. Charles Scott Dickson, K.C., Solicitor-General for Scotland, has been appointed Lord Advocate in succession to Mr. Graham Murray, K.C., who is now Secretary for Scotland.

Mr. David Dundas, K.C., has been appointed Solicitor-General for Scotland.

The reconstruction of the Ministry is now complete.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

LONDON, Oct. 18. The Hon. A. Lyttelton, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, is suffering from jaundice, and has cancelled all his engagements.

THE BRITISH LEGATION AT PEKING.

LONDON, Oct. 19. Sir Ernest Sartorius, the British Minister at Peking, sends the report of Dr. Morrison, the British correspondent of the "Times," that the attempt had been made to destroy the British Legation while a raid was in progress.

Sir E. Sartorius states that an attempt was made to explode the magazine. Only the storehouse was robbed.

Dr. Morrison, the Peking correspondent of the "Times," writes that on October 15, a raid was made on the British Legation at Peking, and the attempt was made to destroy the British Legation while a raid was in progress.

Sir E. Sartorius states that an attempt was made to explode the magazine. Only the storehouse was robbed.

THE ALASKA BOUNDARY.

DECISION EXPECTED ON MONDAY.

AN AMERICAN FORECAST.

LONDON, Oct. 19. It is expected that the decision of the Commission to determine the disputed boundary between Alaska and Canada will be given to-day.

The American press announces that all the American contentions have been granted by the Commission, except that Canada is awarded Portland Canal.

Canada is utterly disappointed, especially at losing Lynn Canal, which is the gateway to Alaska.

A GREAT STEEL CONTRACT.

HESITANT HARLAND AND WOLFF.

LONDON, Oct. 18. The "Daily Telegraph" estimates that Messrs. Harland and Wolff, the great shipbuilders of Belfast, will save 20 per cent. by the contract they have entered into with the American Steel Trust.

It was called a few days ago that Messrs. Harland and Wolff, who use about 150,000 tons of iron and steel annually, had entered into a contract to take all their steel and iron from the Steel Trust.

A CONTRADICTION.

LONDON, Oct. 18. The "Daily Telegraph" this morning contradicts its report with reference to a contract which Messrs. Harland and Wolff had entered into with the American Steel Trust.

It is stated that the contract was not a contract to take all their steel and iron from the Steel Trust.

THE FAR EAST.

GOVERNMENT OF NIU-CHANG.

PROPOSED MIXED COUNCIL.

LONDON, Oct. 19. The Russian Administrator at Niou-chang has proposed that for the government of the city a municipality should be created, and that the council should include two British members and one American member, whose decisions, however, would be subject to the approval of the Administrator.

The above appeared in yesterday's Second Edition.

JAPANESE CONFIDENT IN THEIR GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, Oct. 19. The events in Manchuria and Korea have caused no excitement in Japan. The people are apparently confident in their Government's ability to maintain their prestige and in its policy.

The above appeared in yesterday's Second Edition.

BRIGADES CAPTURE A MANCHURIAN TOWN.

LONDON, Oct. 19. A band of Chien-shueh (brigade) surprised Bodone, in Manchuria, and captured it. A party of Cossacks has been sent to recapture the town.

It was said that a few weeks to being 12 months ago a message was published in the "Times" that the Russian Government had captured Bodone. For some months previous to that capture the Japanese had been in possession of the town.

At a time when the Japanese had been in possession of the town, the Russian Government had been in possession of the town.

CABLE LINE INTERRUPTED.

LONDON, Oct. 19. The Deputy Postmaster-General was informed last night by the Russian Government that communication with Pusan (Korea) is interrupted.

GERMANY'S COLONISATION AIMS.

LONDON, Oct. 18. Mr. Drayton, a member of the United States Congress, after studying naval affairs in Europe, has announced that he is convinced that Germany is aiming at the creation of a powerful navy equal to that of any other power with a view of securing control of the world's commerce.

Mr. Drayton does not believe that Germany will permit the Monroe doctrine to stand in the way of that policy, and that the United States ought therefore to immediately build five battleships of 16,000 tons each.

The above appeared in yesterday's Second Edition.

SPOILATION OF THE ARME- NIAN CHURCH.

LONDON, Oct. 19. In consequence of the spoliation of the Armenian Church at Yerevan, the Armenian Archbishop at Tiflis from his pulpits cursed the Czar, declaring that he was a cruel despot and a sacrilegious plunderer of church property.

The congregation of the Archbishop cursed the Czar.

Cossacks arrested the Archbishop and forced the congregation with knives.

With the exception of the churches at Moscow and St. Petersburg, all the property of the Armenian Church has been looted by the Russian Government under the control of the Czar.

The plundered and real estate are to be administered by the Minister of Public Instruction. The value of the property of the Armenian Church is estimated at nearly £12,000,000. Most of the property is in the hands of the Russian Government, and the Czar has been forced to return it.

"What was your particular malady?" asked the doctor.

"My sickness seemed to pervade my whole system, for I became very weak and lost weight, and could not keep up to my usual work. I had only half the amount of energy that a young man like myself ought to display. Ever since I remember I always had a habit of eating very little of my food quickly, and I believe that this was the cause of my ultimate suffering from indigestion. My appetite became so poor that, as on some days I was ravenous

Strange as it may seem to you, I felt better when I was not eating, than when I could eat freely by which I mean the taking of food caused me great discomfort. My chest felt heavily burdened, as stomach appeared to be inflated with gas. Anything I tried to eat had an unpleasant turn, which came from the bitter taste in mouth, and in the morning I noticed salt fur on my tongue. The sense of sickness which so frequently came over me more distressing than I can tell you, was simply terrible, making me feel as if I was oppressed that I longed for the day to come when I could eat freely.
